How to join a WebEx meeting using a phone

- 1. Dial Toll Free in Canada 1-833-311-4101 or the number provided to you for your meeting;
- 2. When prompted, select your preferred language (i.e. enter "1" for English, followed by #);
- 3. When prompted, enter the 'meeting code' or 'meeting ID', followed by #, to enter the meeting;
- 4. To speak at the meeting, press "*3" on your phone's key pad to indicate to the Chair that you wish to participate. This will "raise your hand" in the meeting;
- 5. The meeting Chair will invite participants with a hand raised to speak in turn; and
- 6. When you have finished speaking, please press "*3" on your phone's key pad to "lower your hand".

Helpful hints once you are in the meeting

- If a meeting has not yet started, you can wait in the virtual lobby
- If using a cell phone, please stay in one place where you have good signal
- If you are using computer audio, make sure you have a microphone if you need to talk. (If not, you can still watch the public hearing on your computer and use the call in option to listen/speak using your phone.
- If you are having difficulty with your audio, then you can also type into the chat box in the bottom right corner.
- If you have audio or video problems, you can switch to the dial in option
- You do not have to use the video function to participate in the meeting. You are welcome to use audio only.
- Materials that would normally be available at a public meeting will be provided on the proposal's webpage.
- Written comments can be emailed to planning@rdos.bc.ca
